Mr. Vega,

Hoping all is well with you.

A parallel investigation on Compass Group, filed by Jerome Huff with Elaine White as investigator is underway.

Same company, same actors, same complaints and I thought I'd update you on that.

Complainant is: (He came in after I was "laid off" and has quite a bit of insight and information you could use, maybe.)

If you are able to return to work. You can withdraw the charges at any time.

Also, let me know if they contact you back (no more than 2 weeks). I can try to speak with Respondent's counsel to propose your return to work as a voluntary settlement proposal.

Mr. Vega,

I just wanted to update you on an interesting development.
I received a call this morning from a project manager with SSC at Prairie View A&M.
She inquired if I was interested in coming back to work at the university.
I told her I was and then advised her of my EEOC wrongful termination/discrimination complaint.
She said she was offering the job and would speak with the Executive Director for SSC/PVAMU for clarification/authorization.
I advised her that I felt upper management probably wouldn't approve my rehiring but that it would be fine for her to try.
I also said the intent of my EEOC complaint was to regain employment so this could be a win-win all the way around for all parties but I didn't think SSC would be seeing things clearly and still maintains an adversarial position.
She said they really need people who know what they are doing to handle the work load and she has seen my work product in the files and she would like my help to get projects back online.

I haven't heard back with a "formal" offer, but I wanted to apprise you of the developing, albeit curious, situation.
Just a fantasy at this time.
All in all, pretty nice phone call to receive on Veterans Day.

Mr. Vega,

I was wondering if it would be possible or is it too late to add Prairie View A&M University to the complaint if in fact they were directing the actions of SSC/Compass Group?
The staff turnover since I was lid off is beyond comprehension and PVAMU is an obstructive influence on the activities of SSC/Compass Group.
Please advise soonest.
Be well and go in peace....
